

A story from the Archives

Aberdeenshire
COUNCIL

Wherever I lay my hat a history of social housing in Aberdeenshire

The talk will look at the development of council housing in Aberdeenshire in the 20th Century following the end of World War One.

Attendees at the previous event said:

"A fantastic talk."

"Very interesting."

"Thoroughly recommend this."

Delve into this fascinating history from the Archives in the Ury Room, Gordon House, Inverurie, from 12.30 on Friday 1st November 2013

To book a place:
Email archives@aberdeencity.gov.uk
Phone (01224) 481775

Booking for this event is essential